

ADVENTISTS TO CAMP

CONFERENCE PREPARES LARGE TENT CITY AT SAN FERNANDO

Seventh-day Adventists of the Southern California Conference will hold their annual camp meeting at San Fernando, June 15 to 25. The big camp, to accommodate the large throng, already is being made ready. Hundreds of representatives of the denomination will be present from Los Angeles, Glendale, Long Beach, Pasadena, San Luis Obispo, Whittier and other places in this section of the state. Prominent Seventh-day Adventist speakers from Washington, D. C., Mountain View, Cal., Loma Linda, Cal., and other places, will address the large audiences. The denomination maintains a large medical institution at Loma Linda, and an academy at San Fernando.

One of the innovations at the coming camp-meeting will be a Bible study after the daily morning preaching services, during which individuals will be given an opportunity to ask questions, and these will be answered by the speaker. As the general public is welcomed at all the meetings, the questionnaire is expected to be very interesting.

The arrangements of the tent city will be complete in every respect. One of the great canvas pavilions now being erected will seat from 1500 to 2000 persons. Besides this, five or six tents with a seating capacity of from 250 to 500 persons, are being made ready. In these will be held meetings for the young people and children, as well as preaching services in German and Spanish, for the benefit of those who understand these languages. A grocery store, cafeteria, book-tent and post-office will be in operation on the grounds. Bibles, denominational books, tracts and periodicals will be for sale in the book tent.

From the evening of June 15, when the big session opens, to the evening of June 25, some sort of meeting will be in progress at practically every hour of the day, from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m., with the exception of the time assigned for meals. At some hours three meetings will be held at the same time. The conference officials have outlined a daily program which will be followed carefully.

Elder G. B. Thompson, of Washington, D. C., secretary of the North American Division Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists, will be among the well-known speakers who will address the large audiences. Elder A. O. Tait, of Mountain View, Cal., editor of the "Signs of the Times," a weekly paper issued by the Adventists, and having a large circulation throughout America, also will speak. Stirring talks on the world war in the light of Bible prophecies will be given by Elder E. E. Andross, of Glendale, president of the Pacific Union Conference of the denomination and having jurisdiction over the territory of California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and Western Colorado, in which are nine local conferences. The Adventists have said for many years that their study of Bible prophecies led them to believe that an awful war was in store for the world. They say that the same prophecies point out the crime, disasters by land and sea, and the labor troubles of the present day as significant omens. These prophecies and the remedy for present-day conditions will be discussed during the encampment. Elder B. E. Beddoe, of Los Angeles, president of the Southern California Conference, is in charge of the meetings.

CALIFORNIA OHIO PICNIC

It is expected that 12,000 "Buck-eyes" and others will enjoy the annual all-Southern California Ohio picnic, at Brookside park, Pasadena, Cal., Saturday, June 24. That date is St. John's day and the Knights Templar of Ohio will be in attendance at the triennial convocation in Los Angeles, that week. They have been invited to attend. Others of the visiting organizations will be present with their bands. The Ohio society of San Diego will be present with a fine band and a group of singers and dancers from the Exposition. Hot coffee will be furnished free. Speeches, sports, fireworks and other amusements will be provided.

WHO KNOWS LOCAL BIRDS?

The Bird and Birdhouse committee of the Garden society would be glad to get in touch with some Glendale resident who knows the names and habits of local birds. Kindly communicate with Mr. C. Orff, chairman of the committee, 1109 1/2 West Broadway, or with Headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, Sunset 1357.

STUDIO FOR VOICE

MRS. CATHERINE SHANK ESTABLISHES MUSIC SCHOOL AT 1533 RIVERDALE DRIVE

Mrs. Catherine Shank, who has made a specialty of voice culture for some years past, in Los Angeles, has opened a studio in Glendale, at 1533 Riverdale Drive. Mrs. Shank received her early training in Los Angeles from Madame Josef Rubo. After having gone through a thorough course of preparation she went to New York, where she studied under Signor Nuno. Later she went to Paris where she became a pupil of Mme. Adiny Millet.

Mrs. Shank's training was meant to fit her for operatic work, but she drifted into church work, teaching and concert work. For several years she was choir leader in the Emmanuel Presbyterian church of Pasadena. She also sang in the Synagogue of Los Angeles and in the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Shank has a large residence on Riverdale Drive. It is her own property. Here she has two studios—one for juvenile and one for advanced work. She believes that one lesson a week for voice work is not enough. She aims at building small housekeeping cottages on her ground, of which she has an acre, and ultimately erecting a recital hall, which would accommodate 60 people. In the small cottages she expects to have young women anxious for voice training and education in languages, piano, etc., from neighboring states.

Two young girls, Miss Warrenner, a pupil of Alfred Butler of Los Angeles, and Miss Moore, a pupil of Mrs. Carlotta Wagner, of Los Angeles, will have charge of the juvenile department.

Mrs. Shank will devote herself to voice training. In co-operation with Mrs. Shank will be Prof. Jerome Gazzo, who is in charge of the Foreign language branch in the California Conservatory of Music, Los Angeles, Florencio Constantino's conservatory. Prof. Gazzo has a special method of teaching languages, that produces excellent results in a very short time. He will teach French, Italian and Spanish.

Twelve of Mrs. Shank's pupils will appear in the Peace Pageant at the Pacific avenue school tonight.

PACKER GOOD CAMPAIGNER

The friends of Mr. Stephen C. Packer, of Glendale, are enthusiastically boosting his candidacy for the nomination for supervisor of this district. Mr. Packer was selected by the Glendale people because of their belief in his ability and integrity and he is backed by a vigorous organization which is leaving no legitimate means overlooked to secure their object. There is a very general feeling throughout the valley that it is time that its people be represented on the board of supervisors, instead of any longer leaving it to East Los Angeles and South Pasadena to name the man. Mr. Packer's qualifications are said to be such as to make him an ideal supervisor, and he is certainly proving himself to be a good campaigner.

PEACE PAGEANT

There was a large attendance at the dress rehearsal of the Peace Pageant at the Pacific Avenue playground Friday night. The grounds looked beautiful under the powerful light of four 1000-candle-power electric lights and a huge spot light that brought out the beauties of the wonderful pageant. There is no doubt that the pageant will prove a great attraction. It is beautifully costumed and the songs and classical dances of the first order. The whole pageant is under the direction of Mrs. Wayland Brown. The story was written by Mr. Herbert J. Blanchard. The grounds have been specially laid out. Two Greek temples have been constructed, one on each side of the playground, and trees have been planted in groups where needed by the exigencies of the presentation. The whole affair promises to be one of the best productions of this kind ever seen in Glendale.

GOOD BILL AT PALACE GRAND TONIGHT

Mabel Taliaferro, the well-known actress, will be featured in "The Snowbird," a feature picture of great merit, at the Palace-Grand tonight. Miss Taliaferro takes the part of a madcap society girl, who meets her fate in the wilds of the North Canadian woods, after a host of sensational adventures.

Also the Mutt and Jeff series and one reel of Frank Daniels in comedy.

REPUBLICANS NOMINATE JUSTICE HUGHES

CANDIDATE WAS ACCORDED 949 1/2 VOTES ON THE THIRD BALLOT—PROGRESSIVES NOMINATE ROOSEVELT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, June 10.—Amid great excitement and prolonged cheering Charles Evans Hughes was nominated for president of the United States. The vote was 949 1/2 on the third ballot. This was out of a possible 987. The selection of Hughes came after Roosevelt had made a last-hour attempt to swing a compromise candidate in the person of Senator Lodge, to represent both his own party and the Republicans. Fairbanks was nominated for vice-president.

The convention was called to order at 11:47 (Central time). Then began withdrawals of names of candidates. Weeks was withdrawn, then Sherman, then DuPont, then Burton, then Fairbanks and lastly Cummins. At 12:31 Hughes was nominated.

The final vote was, Hughes 949 1/2, Roosevelt 18, Weeks 3, La Follette 5, Lodge 7.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 10.—Up to this time Fairbanks had not decided to accept the Republican nomination for vice-president.

The Progressive convention nominated Theodore Roosevelt for president.

GERMANS SHELLING FORT SOUVILLE

TEUTONS DETERMINED TO ENLARGE THEIR FRONTAGE BY STORMING STRONG POSITION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 10.—The Germans began a heavy bombardment of Fort Souville this morning. Their present line, since the capture of Fort Vaux, presents a sawtoothed appearance and cannot be held in that condition. Hence the bombardment of Souville. The fort occupies a height of 1280 feet situated to the southwest of the German line. Its guns sweep the line of crests running from Vaux to Douaumont and its seizure will be a hard task which will entail desperate fighting and enormous sacrifice of life.

SUICIDE THEORY IN LAMBERT CASE

WITNESS SAYS SHE SAW GIRL SUPPOSED MURDERED EXAMINING POISON IN LABORATORY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WAUKEGAN, June 10.—In the course of the trial of Will Orpet, the Wisconsin university student, accused of the murder of his former sweetheart, Marion Lambert, a witness was brought forward in the person of a student who testified that she had seen the deceased girl examining poisons in the High school laboratory. This evidence strengthens the contention of the defense that Marion committed suicide. Another witness was Marion Lambert's father, who testified as to the last time he saw his daughter alive and to the finding of her body in Helm's woods. Lambert also testified that he kept cyanide in his house, but that it was always locked up.

HUGHES RESIGNS FROM SUPREME BENCH

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE ACCEPTS AND INDORSES PLATFORM OF HIS PARTY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10, 3:30 p. m.—Supreme Court Justice Hughes resigned his position as associate justice this afternoon. President Wilson immediately intimated that the resignation was accepted. Hughes also intimated that he accepted and indorsed the Republican platform as formulated at Chicago. On receipt of the news that Hughes accepted the nomination the Republican convention in Chicago adjourned sine die.

FIGHTING WEST OF CAPTURED FORT VAUX

GERMANS ATTEMPT TO PUSH FORWARD IN DIRECTION OF THIAUMONT ARE REPULSED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 10.—Since the capture of Fort Vaux the Germans have endeavored to push forward to the west. The fighting has been desperate. Several divisions of Germans have been broken up and destroyed. They still push their forces against the French defense in the trenches in the Vaux vicinity and are suffering enormous losses.

JOHN M. PARKER PROGRESSIVE VICE-PRES.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Auditorium, June 10.—At 3:04 the Progressive convention was called to order by Chairman Robins, who then called for vice-presidential nominations. Louisiana nominated John M. Parker. Maine nominated Raymond Robins. Kentucky nominated Gov. Johnson of California. Johnson declined the nomination and seconded Parker's nomination. Robins moved suspension of rules to make Parker's nomination unanimous. John M. Parker was then nominated vice-president by acclamation.

PLANS FOR LIBRARY

CITY TRUSTEES AND LIBRARY BOARD CONSULT ON NEED FOR FLOOR SPACE

At a joint meeting of the city trustees and the library board, held in the library Wednesday, the whole situation in connection with the accommodations at the library was looked over and discussed. It was agreed that something should be done to increase the floor space. This will probably be done by removing the consulting department to the basement. It is also probable that the children's department will also be moved to the basement.

If this should be done the basement will have to be put in shape as it is still unfinished. The main need at present is to separate the circulation and reference departments. Those who use the library as a reference medium require peace and quiet.

It may be well for parents and children to note that the Story Hour at the library will begin very soon. The moment the schools close Mrs. Danford will announce the date of the first Story Hour. It will be remembered how popular those Story hours were last year. This year it is anticipated that they will be even more popular.

Miss Esther L. Sinclair, one of the library assistants, who has a remarkable artistic talent, has drawn a very beautiful poster, representing a baby in a cradle drawn by a group of cupids. This fine piece of work is exhibited on the bulletin board, where it serves as a reminder of the approach of the Children's Hour.

The librarian desires to remind the public that the bulletin of new books can now be obtained at the desk.

CHURCH PAYS MORTGAGE

Casa Verdugo Methodist-Episcopal church held a very interesting meeting, Wednesday evening, June 7, to celebrate the payment of one of the mortgages on the church. The mortgage amounted to $354.66. The following program was given:

Piano Selection...Miss Nan M. Brown
Prayer...Rev. C. R. Norton
Reading, "What The Ladies' Aid Can Do"...Mrs. R. D. Jones
Two interesting addresses were given by the Rev. C. R. Norton and Dr. J. M. Jeffers, pastor of South Pasadena M. E. church. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Jones gave some fine quartette singing. Mr. Clark also sang two solos.

Mrs. M. N. Barnett burned the old note as the people sang the Doxology. Then followed a social hour. Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid.

REMARKABLE CHURCH PROGRESS

Remarkable progress has been made in the development of the Boys' club of St. Mark's Sunday School. This organization meets every Friday, in the Crypt, under the direction of Charles Badger. The boys enjoy the meetings and are enthusiastic in their practice of wrestling, boxing and other athletic sports. The society is growing rapidly.

In similar manner St. Mark's Episcopal Sunday School, during the incumbency of the Rev. C. Irving Mills, D. D., has grown in two years from 25 to 110, with an average attendance of 95. It has also eleven teachers. Prof. R. D. White is the Bible class teacher. This class has grown in three months from three to eighteen. There is also a boys' class of 18 of which H. H. Faries is teacher. Two other boys' classes are taught by Mr. Badger and Mr. Polley.

The Sunday School picnic will be held Saturday, July 1. All children who have registered before that date as scholars will be entitled to the privileges of the picnic.

FIREWORKS FORBIDDEN

Citizens of Glendale are reminded that a city ordinance forbids the discharge of fireworks within the precincts of Glendale. Any breach of this ordinance is a misdemeanor and subjects its perpetrator to fine and imprisonment. It will be well for parents and others to notify children of the existence of this ordinance in view of the approach of the Fourth of July. The police have orders to enforce the ordinance strictly.

GEORGE H. HERALD,
Chief of Police.

Miss Eileen Freeman, daughter of Mrs. R. D. White, left Saturday morning for Chicago and the East. She will be away three months, visiting friends.

JUNIORS GIVE DANCE

GRADUATING SENIORS ENTERAINED AT UNIQUE FUNCTION IN THE MASONIC TEMPLE

When the lights went up in the main hall of the Masonic Temple Friday evening they revealed a scene of beauty that has seldom been equaled in the record of adornments that hall of entertainment has witnessed. From the large central light long festoons of asparagus fern intermingled with red carnations were stretched to each corner of the room and the space between was festooned in similar fashion. From the central light itself a large white basket filled with red carnations was suspended. In each window was a hanging basket of red carnations and ferns.

Above the platform was a large red "1916" in electric lights, and the platform itself was embowered in ferns and palms. The senior banner also was suspended beneath the "1916." In the center of the platform stood the Faries Athletic silver cup, won by the juniors for inter-class athletics.

In the left-hand corner of the hall at the door a cosy corner had been arranged, with settees and palms. This was well patronized throughout the evening. The Howdy band from Los Angeles furnished the music.

The following program was given:

Violin Solo, "Caprice d'Amour".....
.....Cecil Crandall
Reading, "The Prodigal Son".....
.....Coral Harrison Sloan
Dance, Santiago Waltz.....
Viola Yorba and Ernest Martinez

The refreshments consisted of white squares of ice cream with a red "16" in the center. The cakes were beautiful creations of white angel food with a red "16" on the top. Punch was served throughout the evening.

The dance was under the chaperonage and patronage of the following ladies: Mesdames T. W. Preston, J. J. Phillips, R. D. White, D. H. Imier, L. E. Lyon, J. N. McGillis, A. B. Heacock, J. G. Hunchberger, Joseph Renshaw and E. W. Hunt.

P-T. A. LUNCHEON

A very pleasing and unique affair was the luncheon given by the Parent-Teacher association of the Central Avenue school, in honor of the teachers, Thursday, June 8, between the hours of 12 and 1. The table was spread in the front entrance hall and was a pleasing scene with its color scheme of yellow and white, which was carried out in the decorations and also in the menu. Covers were laid for forty and thirty were present.

Mrs. F. F. Kurtz, the new president, conducted the program. She spoke of the splendid work of the teachers and the desire on the part of the association to manifest its gratitude to the teachers by this luncheon. Miss McIntyre replied for the teachers in appropriate terms.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Parent-Teacher federation, was then introduced and congratulated the school on being the first in the federation to carry out the beautiful thought of honoring the teachers. She also spoke of the advantage of placing child welfare first rather than the raising of finances.

Mrs. N. C. Kelley, past president, responded for the officials of the past year. She thanked all for their co-operation, which had made good results possible. Two new records were played on the Victrola. A splendid picture of Abraham Lincoln was presented by the chairman on Patriotism, Mrs. Payne. This picture the school won in a recent ticket-selling competition.

At 1 o'clock the teachers went back to their duties and the association adjourned to the auditorium for routine business. Plans were laid for the July and August meetings. These will take the form of picnic outings, on the second Thursday of each month. Among other reports, Mrs. N. C. Kelley narrated the transactions of the last convention of the Congress of Mothers.

Including delegates from territories, the United States Congress has 536 members—440 in the House of Representatives and 96 in the Senate. The salaries of men in two branches are the same—$7,500 each, with mileage (20 cents per mile each way) and perquisites additional.

SEQUOIA NATIONAL PARK

Patriotic Americans compelled to stay at home on account of the war in Europe will find in California one of the finest natural parks in the world. When the Tower of Babel was being built, possibly a hundred or two hundred years before the birth of Abraham, a tiny seed in the warm soil of a mountain slope on the very opposite side of the world peered through the grass, shooting upward its slender green spike, destined, during an existence of more than four thousand years, to become a mighty tree the like of which is not to be found in this world. The Tower of Babel is now a heap of crumbled clay, but the Sequoia Gigantea, the noble redwood tree of the Sequoia National Park of California, still rears erect its giant form and points to the vain works of man.

Throughout those four thousand years, the giant trees of the California forest have borne the heats of summer and the floods of winter. They have sheltered the redman, and the white man has rested beneath their shade. The birds of four thousand generations have sung in their branches and the wild animals of the forest have cropped the grass at their feet or hidden in the undergrowth that clothes their feet.

One of the largest of these trees, one of the celebrated big trees of California, showed on its stump four thousand rings, one ring for each year of its life. Its trunk, exclusive of bark, was thirty-five feet eight inches in diameter. As the bark of the very largest of the sequoias is two feet or more in thickness, this giant must have measured forty feet in diameter when it was growing on the slopes of the Kings River.

In the Sequoia National park, on the slopes of the Sierra Nevada, in Central California, and in the little General Grant National park, six miles away and under the same management, grow 1,166,000 sequoia trees, of which 12,000 are more than ten feet in diameter. Some of these trees range from 255 feet to 291 feet in height and in diameter from 27 feet to 36.5 feet. There are sequoia trees of great height in several other parts of California also, notably in the Yosemite National park, where there are three distinct groves.

It is significant of the size of these trees to compute that a box made of inch planks sawed from any one of these magnificent trees could have been constructed to hold the ill-fated Lusitania, the biggest ship that ever was afloat. Many of the trees growing in the Sequoia National park were vigorous youngsters when the Pyramids of Egypt were being built on the Egyptian desert and before Babylon had reached its prime. Hundreds of them were thriving long before the heroic ages of ancient Greece—while in fact the rough Indo-Germanic ancestors of the Greeks were still swarming from the north. Thousands were lusty youths through all the ages of Greek art and Roman wars. Tens of thousands were flourishing when Christ was born in Bethlehem.

Americans who have never seen these wonderful trees should take a trip through the National forests this summer. The forests are ideal places in which to camp. The scenery is magnificent, abounding in mountains but easily accessible once you are among the mountains. It has lofty peaks, canyons deep and romantic. Its summer temperatures are even and bracing and practically without rain. Mount Whitney, the highest mountain in the United States, 14,501 feet, lies beyond the eastern boundary. The Kings and Kern rivers have few scenic rivals and these streams and many others abound in trout.

DEVELOPMENT OF AIR FIGHTING

Pemberton Billing, the great British authority on aviation, has an idea that before long the countries of the world will have air fleets of 100,000 aeroplanes and a force of 250,000 within the next ten years. He says there should be five different kinds of aeroplanes. First a scout, small and very fast; then a heavier machine, armored, for bomb dropping, carrying, perhaps, one bomb. The third will be a cheap and large machine, made in vast quantities, for ordinary battle purposes.

In addition to these would be a transport aeroplane which would rank next in importance to the battle plane. This would be capable of carrying from fifteen to twenty-five men from one part of a battle line to another and also of moving guns, ammunition and other supplies. It would probably have five or six decks. Such a machine would rank as the army motor bus.

There are going to be huge battleplanes in the future that will carry batteries of four 5-inch guns or three 6-inch guns with fire control like battleships and with a captain and crew. The armies and navies of the future are going to be in the air. The enemy will have to come to the sky to fight. As soon as the nations realize this so soon will they understand where the mastery of the world is to be won. The troops of the future will be moved through the sky; fed in the sky; live in the sky. Napoleon used to force his enemies to give battle in the exact place he had himself chosen. The generals of the future will force their enemies to come up into the sky to meet them.

This is the program of the British aviation authority. He has a very definite idea of the plane that would be made for the use of the ordinary infantrymen of the sky, the machine that would make up the bulk of the sky flotilla. The wings would be stamped out of metal by the thousand. The parts would be standardized. The frames would be of steel tubing and the machines could be put together quickly, strongly and scientifically just as a modern automobile is assembled and put together in a day.

It is calculated that the cost of such aeroplanes would be about a thousand dollars each. It is also calculated that 5000 pilots could be trained within six months. Pemberton Billing proposes to utilize an automobile speedway and a riding track for the training. He would put his pupils on the cycle track and have them learn the sense of balance. Then he would put them on automobiles to gain a sense of speed. The cycle track and the automobile track would

USILTON MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS

The following recommendations were made by J. W. Usilton, president of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, at the regular meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, 1011 West Broadway, Friday evening. After the adoption of the recommendations and the appointment of a committee to inquire into the advisability of building a boulevard from Glendale to Griffith Park, the Chamber adjourned.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce, Gentlemen:

In my opinion steps should be taken to procure a road to Griffith park from a central point in this city and realizing that some difficulty will be met with in procuring this means of convenient ingress to the park we recommend that a committee be appointed to agree as to the most convenient route to work for. It is to be hoped that the committee will be composed of members that have no benefit to derive from land values, etc., but that they will be enabled to work for the convenience of the majority of the residents of Glendale, Eagle Rock and Pasadena will be equally benefited with this city in the building of such a road. A narrow strip in the county of Los Angeles will have to be crossed, after which the road would be entirely within the confines of Griffith park. Should the chamber decide to try to obtain this improvement I would state that having gone over the ground thoroughly that the proposed road should intersect the Griffith park road at the northern part of the municipal golf links—at least this point should be carefully considered.

This chamber should recommend to the city trustees the completion of the public library for the following reasons:

Without an increase of floor space it is impossible to have even one more set of book shelves in the adult room where the room is urgently needed now.

For the convenience of patrons it has become an absolute necessity to separate the circulation and reference departments as the numerous callers and confusion of book selection interferes with the quiet of reference work. The use of the present juvenile room would provide for this and dispense with the confusion of juvenile department on main floor. Other cities are using their library as a social center to elevate the tone of social and moral life and have proven these lines to be most worthy.

Our librarian, Mrs. Danford, has established a Story Hour and would institute other necessary features if room were available. To give an idea of the attention that the library work of this city is receiving a letter was recently received by the librarian from the Secretary of the United States Division of Education asking for a statement to publish for the inspiration of other libraries as to work done with the mothers—especially through child culture books. To follow up this work more floor space is needed.

To give an idea of the expense of running the library we will draw a few comparisons: Pomona has eight employees and spends $360 per month for salaries; Glendale spends $410 a month for all running expenses, including salaries. Redondo has service of two employees for $141 per month; Glendale has service of four for $130. South Pasadena has service of three for $200.

It is confidently believed that this city has one of the best managed libraries in Southern California and we believe the taxpayers are willing to finish the basement of the library building and make the other additions necessary for the accommodation of the public, and we think that the Chamber of Commerce of Glendale should so recommend to the city trustees.

Confident that the condition of Colorado avenue can not be remedied till sufficient funds are in hand to make the improvement still we reiterate that the condition is deplorable and more unfavorable comment is heard regarding it than sets well to a loyal citizen of Glendale and the condition should be improved as soon as possible.

HALCYON DAYS

Do we know a more beautiful story of faithfulness than that of halcyons (Kinkfishers) who are so attached to each other that when the male is paralyzed by age, the female bears him on her wings wherever he wishes to go? The gods reward such devotion, and when the pair build the nest to hatch the young the winds and the waves are hushed, and the sun shines brightly during these "Halcyon Days."—Ebers, Egyptian Princess.

Constant dropping of water wears away stone.

give them head-training. Then by controlling horses their hands would be trained and they would be ready to take up flying.

Billing argues that the more terrible war becomes the less likely men are to desire to prosecute it. Two nations with a hundred thousand aeroplanes each would not dare to fight each other, he says. He thinks that sooner or later the United States will have to reckon with Japan. The Japanese are able people, he says, and they are rapidly developing aviation, although they are saying little or nothing about it. They have a keen sense of progress in military affairs and have little idea of being caught asleep when the next modern war develops. It would be well, he says, for other nations to look ahead also as war methods rapidly grow out of date in these days.

countryside, one native may be seen laboriously tilling his paternal acres with a crude wooden plow and yoke of oxen, while his more progressive neighbor may possess an Oliver Chilled of the most approved pattern.

The vegetation is luxurious. Tropical trees grow in rich profusion. The palm and coconut-palm flourish everywhere, mingled with many species of flowering trees, with great, broad leaves. It reminds one much of the Orient, and it is hard indeed to believe that only 1000 miles away lie the great United States. Its rich valleys are not depleted, as in America, by wasteful methods of agriculture, nor are its forests denuded by the ruthless lumberman.

WHY SHADE TREES?

Because:

Trees make for beauty, shade, coolness and health. A city of beauty, shade, coolness and health attracts new residents. So Trees make for growth in property values.

Trees put a bit of God's country into your streets.

Trees make your home more homelike; and this is better than fine gold.

A City of homelike Homes is a City beloved.

Which is another way of saying: Trees make for civic patriotism.

The above is evidence of the go-aheadness of the Newark Shade Tree commission. Read the few phrases again, and think of the bareness of Brand boulevard, Glendale, as you read—beauty, shade, coolness and health! What four words could you find to adequately describe Brand boulevard?—NANNO WOODS.

PAPOGAGO

The island at its highest point is nearly severed in two by the long-elbowed harbor, about half a mile in width, cased everywhere in abrupt mountainsides. The tongue of water sleeps in perfect quiet, and laps around its continent with the flapping wavelets of a lake. The wind passes overhead; day and night overhead the scroll of trade-wind clouds is unrolled across the sky, now in vast sculptured masses, now in a thin drift of debris. . . . Below, meanwhile the harbor lies unshaken and laps idly on its margin; its color is green like a forest pool, bright in the shallows, dark in the midst with the reflected sides of woody mountains. At times a flicker of silver breaks the uniformity, miniature white caps flashing and disappearing on the somber ground; to see it you might think the wind was treading on and toeing the flat water, but not so—the harbor lies unshaken, and the flickering is that of fishes.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

THIRD PARTY ORDERS

All mercantile houses have more or less experience with third parties ordering goods to be charged to some one else. Those who are wise demand, on such occasions, a written authority before making such charge and delivery. Or perhaps if acquainted with the charge, may obtain his authority by phone, for the sake of expedition, requesting at the same time a written confirmation. This is the safe way, for while it is probably true that only an occasional sale of this character goes wrong, yet the chances of repudiation are too great. Suppose that a workman is sent to buy goods to be charged to an employer, to be used on specific work. How easy it is for the workman to come along later and obtain further materials to be devoted to his own use, and which the employer refuses, and justly, to pay for. How much better to require the written order, which cannot be disputed. Suppose, as has often happened, the workman feels himself affronted by being asked for a written authority. It is far better to be on the safe side, peeve or no peeve. Safety First.
